POST-FINALIZATION ADOPTION SERVICES
QUARTERLY REPORT
AD 56P (10/01)

INSTRUCTIONS

CONTENT

The quarterly AD 56P reports collect statistical information on post-finalization adoption activities performed by all adoption agencies in the State of California.

PURPOSE

The AD 56P report collects information from all California adoption agencies concerning post-finalization services provided on behalf of adopted persons adopted through the Agency, Independent, and Intercountry Adoption Programs. Information collected on the AD 56P is used to prepare the Adoptions in California Annual Statistical Report. This report provides information regarding adoption agency activities to the California Department of Social Services (CDSS), the general public, the legislature, the media, and the academic community.

This report also provides nonprofit, county, state, and federal entities with information needed for budgeting, staffing, program planning, and other purposes.

DUE DATE AND CONTACT

Each adoption agency is responsible for ensuring that this report is fully and accurately completed. If portions of the report are completed by more than one entity, the contact person responsible for submitting the report to the state shall review the report for completeness and accuracy prior to submittal. Reports are to be received on or before the 30th calendar day of the month following the end of the report quarter. The four reporting quarters are July through September, October through December, January through March, and April through June. Fax or mail reports to:

DEFINITIONS

AAP/AAC reassessment: The adoption agency completed a reassessment of the child's needs for AAP or AAC as specified by 22 CCR 35343.

Adoption Agency: A licensed California public or private adoption agency or a CDSS adoption district office.

Adoption Assistance Program/Aid for the Adoption of Children (AAP/AAC): A program providing financial and/or medical assistance to facilitate the adoption of children whom otherwise would remain in long-term foster care.

Background information: The provision of non-identifying information regarding an adoptee, an adoptee's birth parents, or an adoptee's siblings; the provision of identifying information pursuant to Family Code Sections 9203, 9204, or 9204; or the release of letters and other materials pursuant to Family Code Section 9206.

Case management: Social work services including assessing the child's/family's needs, developing the case plan, monitoring progress in achieving case plan objectives, and ensuring that all services specified in the case plan are provided.

Counseling: Assisting the child and his/her family to analyze and better understand the situation, select methods of problem-solving, identify goals, and explore alternative behavior.

Final decree of adoption: A court order granting the completion of the adoption.

Information: Enabling a person to have current, accurate knowledge regarding available public and private resources established to help relieve socio-health problems.

Post-finalization services: Counseling, information, and referral, or other services provided an adoptee or an adoptee's birth parents, siblings, or adoptive parents.

Referral: Informing another service agency that a child and/or that child's family desires or requires that agency's services, and assisting the child and/or family to avail themselves of such services.

Support groups/parent training: Situations where more than one adoptive family is provided with counseling and/or training in a group setting.

ITEM INSTRUCTIONS*Post-finalization Adoption Services

Collects data concerning services provided by the adoption agency to adopted persons, birth family members, and/or adoptive family members after the adoption was finalized irrespective of the type of adoption or agency responsible for the adoption. For each item, the number of service instances provided by the adoption agency during this quarter is counted. For example, the family who attended three support groups during the quarter would be counted three times.

1. Post-finalization service activities during this quarter (Item 1a through 1e): This is the sum of Items 1a through 1e (Cells 2 – 6). [Cell 1]

- a. Provision of background information: Enter the number of times adoptees, birth family members, and/or adoptive family members were provided non-identifying or identifying background information during this quarter. [Cell 2]
  - b. Information and referral: Enter the number of instances where the agency provided adopted persons, birth family members, and/or adoptive family members with information about, or referral to, services provided by other agencies (e.g., Community Mental Health agencies, other agencies providing adoption-related counseling, Regional Centers for the developmentally disabled, schools) during this quarter. [Cell 3]
  - c. Counseling sessions: Enter the number of individual or family counseling sessions with adopted persons, birth family members, and/or adoptive family members provided during this quarter. [Cell 4]
  - d. Support groups/parent training: Enter the number of adopted persons served by each session provided during this quarter. For example, if the agency provided five support group sessions, each of which were attended by the parents of seven adoptees, the total count would be 35. [Cell 5]
  - e. AAP/AAC reassessment: Enter the number of reassessments of children's needs for AAP or AAC completed as specified by 22 CCR 35343. [Cell 6]
